

How it works:

The Player-Coach Introduction Service helps College coaches use our computers to search for players who meet both soccer AND academic requirements.

Many college coaches begin scouting players as high school freshmen and sophomores, by inviting them to attend the college's summer camp. Our Best Camps Book surveys 100 of these camps coaches use to recruit players.

In July, recruiting of seniors can begin. Coaches like to have their players picked by Christmas, and signed by April. Many are still recruiting by September and most will accept "walk-ons."

Why it works:

We created the Player-Coach Introduction Service because many good players are not on championship club or high school teams. For this reason, it is easy for recruiting coaches to overlook them.

When we do a player search for a college coach, every member's file is analyzed by our computer, until the player graduates from high school. Players in our files are sent to coaches on mailing labels to make it easy for them to quickly contact you.

College Coaches ask us to help search for players, because they know our readers are serious about soccer and college.

We help coaches find players all over North America and beyond.

Our computer will open your profile, every time we do a search, until you graduate high school !

Share this information with your team and your coach ... see Gannon U. under "references" on our website ... we helped 4 of 11 players get recruited for the same Gannon U. team!
